DECISION A BLOW TO TOBACCO TRUST

Sweeping Victory of Government Against Corporation in the Supreme Court.

MUST DISSOLVE THE COMBINE

Directs That Corporation be Forbidden Privilege of Inter-State Commerce—Decree Unusually Severe — The Case.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The Tobacco Trust decision is characterized by Attorney General Wickersham as a "most comprehensive and sweeping victory for the government."

The trust is held to be a combination in restraint of trade—a monopoly in violation of law.

The decision affects 65 American corporations, two English corporations and 29 individual defendants.

An opportunity is given the trust to disintegrate and recreate a condition of transacting business not repugnant to law.

If at the end of six to eight months the corporations fail to bring themselves within the law a receivership and dissolution by court decree will follow.

The trust is held to have been guilty of intimidation and clearly to have shown a purpose to stifle competition.

Chief Justice White announced the decision which was practically unanimous although Justice Harlan dissented on several points. As in the Standard Oil case Justice Harlan resents the application of the "rule of reason" to the Sherman anti-trust law.

The court having held the defendants guilty of conscious wrong-doing, Justice Harlan "is not at all anxious" to perpetuate any new combination growing out of them.

Washington, May 29.—The government today won a sweeping victory over the so-called "Tobacco Trust" when the Supreme Court of the United States held the American Tobacco Company and its allied corporations to be operating in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

By directing that the combination be forbidden the privilege of inter-State commerce or be placed in the hands of a receiver unless it disintegrates in harmony with the law within six, or at the most, eight months, the court is regarded to have dealt with the tobacco corporations more drastically than with the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, whose dissolution was ordered two weeks ago.

Both the first and second sections of the Sherman anti-trust law have been violated by the so-called tobacco trust, according to the court. Not only has it in the eyes of the court, restrained wrongfully and unlawfully inter-State commerce, but it has attempted to monopolize the tobacco business to the injury of the public and of its competitors.

While the decree was regarded as unusually severe, at the same time there was a touch of leniency in not making the combination an outlaw "now."

The various elements of the combination are to be given an opportunity under the supervision of the United States Circuit Court for the Southern district of New York, of recreation so that there may be brought about "a new condition which shall be honestly in harmony with and not repugnant to the law."

The opinion of the court was announced by Chief Justice White, who also delivered the opinion of the court in the Standard Oil case.

The entire court agreed that the tobacco combination violated the Sherman anti-trust law, but Associate Justice Harlan dissented from the repeated interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law so as to call for the application of the "rule of reason" in determining what restraints of trade were forbidden by the act. In this respect the division of the court was the same as in the Standard Oil case. Justice Harlan also took issue with the rest of the court as to the re-organization of the tobacco company, saying that he had found nothing in the record which made him "at all anxious to perpetuate any new combination among these companies, which the court concedes at all times exhibited a conscious wrong-doing."

The court reiterated its determination to follow "the rule of reason" in determining what restraints of trade violated the Sherman anti-trust. Chief Justice White explained at length the decision of the court in the Standard Oil case, but did not qualify the reasoning in that case so as to harmonize it in any particular with the dis-

PLOT TO START NEW REVOLT

Scheme in Mexico Creates Intense Excitement—Madero Has Been Advised—Number of Arrests Made—Situation.

El Paso, Texas, May 29.—Revelations of a plot to start another revolution in Mexico after overthrowing the leadership of Francisco A. Madero, Jr., and preventing his journey to Mexico City, created intense excitement throughout the insurrecto army today.

That Madero had been advised of certain facts not generally know is believed by some to explain the delay in his departure for the capital to consult with President de LaBarra, concerning the pressing problems connected with the re-organization of the government, although Senor Madero himself declared he postponed his trip merely to await the installation of the provisional governors.

The plot, which resulted last night in the arrest of Daniel de Villiers, of Mexico City, at El Paso and W. F. Dunn, an American, at Monterey, Mexico, is said to include among its leaders three insurrecto chiefs operating in the State of Coahuila. A telegram from Monterey today states that Dunn, on Madero's orders, has been placed incommunicate for 72 hours.

De Villiers is held in the El Paso jail on charges of "conspiracy" to murder Francisco I. Madero, Jr.,'

According to Gen. Benjamin Villjoem, the Boer veteran who is Madero's chief military adviser, the scheme was that Villjoen and General Orozco were to desert Madero, and start a new revolutionary movement, which would be joined by certain insurrecto leaders now in the field, together with a federal general known to be friendly to the "scientifico" party.

It was represented to him, General Villjoen says, that great quantities of arms and ammunition were storeu in the mines of Coahuila in anticipation of the new outbreak and that success was assured, as "Madero would never reach Mexico City."

Behind the arrest of tne two alleged conspiratcrs last night is the story of several weeks of conferences and the exchange of many telegrams. Soon after the battle of Juarez, General Villjoen received a telegram from Mexico City, saying:

"The government wants to make a proposition."

The telegram was signed "Villiers."

Madero was informed of the telegram and it was decided to give every encouragement to those behind the overtures. Villjoen, accordingly sent a reply stating that he "was open to receive propositions."

This was followed by a telegram from Villiers, instructing Villjoen "to watch the rebel chief, note by what route he comes and when he leaves. Make friends with Orozco. There is a fortune in sight for us."

Message from LaBarra.

Washington, May 29.—A message from Provisional President de LaBarra, of Mexico, to President Taft was made public at the White House today:

"I am profoundly thankful to your excellency," says Senor de LaBarra, "for the gracious delicitations you were pleased to send me on my provisionally assuming the office of President of the United Mexican State. I cherish the inmost confidence that the republic will soon enter upon a new era of peace and progress and I am resolved upon devoting my every energy to the achievement to that end. I invoke the most cordial wishes for the personal happiness of your excellency of whom I treasure so pleasing remembrances, for Mrs. Taft's complete recovery and for the growing prosperity of the powerful nation over which your excellency presides with so much wisdom and with which I desire that Mexico ill continue to cultivate relations."

FOUGHT FEARFUL DUEL.

Stick Man Killed and Five Others are Injured.

Porum, Okla., May 29.—Standing in the doorway of his home, Pony Starr, with his friend, Joseph Davis, today killed George Maxwell, a stock man, and wounded five more or 30 masked men, said to have been members of the Anti-Horse Thief Association. Starr's wife stood by his side during the conflict and loaded his rifles.

The attackers rode up to Starr's home with the intention of taking Starr and Davis prisoners on the charge of stealing cattle and horses. During the fight that followed more than 200 shots were exchanged.

Starr and Davis, after repulsing the attackers, mounted horses and rode towards the mountains south of town. Tonight the streets of Porum are patrolled by deputies. Searching parties are looking for Starr and Davis.

CLEMSON LOSES ITS CASE.

Supreme Court Decided Against Agricultural College.

Washington, May 29.—The Clemson Agricultural College of South Carolina today in the Supreme Court lost its fight to escape suit for payment of $8,000 to Dr. John Hopkins for damages alleged to have been done to the latter's land by the building of a dyke on the Seneca river, in Oconee county, S. C. The South Carolina courts held that the college was an agent of the State and could not be sued. Justice Lamar held today that this view was wrong and directed further proceedings looking toward a hearing of the suit.

WIRELESS SHARKS WERE CONVICTED

Wilson and Four of His Associates Sentenced to Terms in Prison.

WISE CREATES A SENSATION

Declares Attempt Was Made to Bribe Jury—Guilty of Fradulent Use of Mails—All Sent to the Tombs—Features.

New York, May 29.—Christopher Columbus Wilson, president of the United Wireless Telegraph Company, and four of his associates, were convicted in the criminal branch of the United States Circuit Court late today on fradulent use of the mails to solicit subscriptions to wireless stock. Judge Martin immediately imposed sentence as follows:

President Wilson, three years in the Federal prison at Atlanta; Geo. H. Parker and F. E. Butler, two years each in the same penitentiary; W. A. Diboll and W. W. Tompkins, one year each in some New York penitentiary.

Following a sensational charge by District Attorney Wise that one of the jurors had been approached Sunday night in the interests of the defendants with the offer of a bribe "even if it ran into five figures," and his characterization of the convicted men as 'desperate prisoners, who would flee jurisdiction of the court if admitted to bail," Judge Martin committed the five men to the tombs, under a ten days' stay to allow an appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals if they desire.

Mr. Wise's sensational charge of attempted jury bribery came when a lawyer for the defendants pooh-poohed the idea that the prisoners would run away.

As he approached the bench and exclaimed: "I know your honor, that money was offered to pull me off. I know that one juror was offered any amount of money up to five figures if he would hang the jury. I know there was a certain lawyer interested in having money put into my hands to withdraw from the prosecution of a certain defendant."

As if actuated by a common impulse the ten lawyers for the defense advanced toward Mr. Wise, who stood with his fists clenched and eyes flashing. The whole court room jumped up expecting to see an encounter.

Instead, one of the attorneys calmly demanded of Mr. Wise the name of the lawyer.

"I will name him at the right time and place," said Mr. Wise.

In summing up District Attorney Wise declared that it had been shown "Wilson netted $900,000 from the sale of 76,000 shares of stock, but in all $1,500,000 went into his own pocket."

Subtracting also the profits which his associates were accused of pocketing, only $700,000 out of the $3,000,000 receipts of the United Wireless Company, in three years, went into the treasury of the company.

Each of the defendants was convicted on four counts, three in each case charging misuse of the mails and the fourth, conspiracy. The maximum sentence might have been six and a half years in prison and fines of $25,000 each.

UNIVERSITY HONORS VETERANS.

Civil War Soldiers of This State Receive Their Degrees.

Durham, N. C., May 29.—Eighty-eight gray haired Confederate soldiers, who at the outbreak of the war were students of the University of North Carolina and left their books to take up arms in the long conflict between the States today received their degrees as bachelors of arts. The bestowal of the long deferred graduation honors was in accordance with a special act of the North Carolina Legislature. Many of the old soldiers had not met from the time they left the university to go to war until today, when they occupied seats of honor at the alumni banquet.

Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, will make the commencement address tomorrow.

Senate Finance Committee to Complete Labors Soon.

Washington, May 29.—With the announcement that the Senate Finance Committee, by taking all of Wednesday to hear witnesses on Canadian reciprocity could complete its labors this week, the Senate this evening by a vote of 50 to 17 adjourned until noon Thursday. Chairman Penrose, of the committee, believes that the hearings can be closed when the committee rises Wednesday, but consideration of amendments to the reciprocity bill may delay its report to the Senate until the first of the coming week. It is Senator Penrose's hope, however, that the bill can be reported without change.

WILSON IN NORTH CAROLINA

New Jersey's Governor Meets Cordial Reception in Durham—Delivers Commencement Address at University Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., May 29.—The Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Governor of New Jersey, was in Durham for a few hours this morning on his way to Chapel Hill, where he will deliver the commencement address tomorrow.

The Durham Sun, in referring to Governor Wilson's short stay here, said in its issue this afternoon that he would be the next President of the United States. The Governor came in on the 9:30 Southern train this morning and was to have been met here by a party from Chapel Hill, but owing to a misunderstanding as to schedule they did not reach here in time.

The distinguished visitor stood around the station chatting for an hour with those who happened to recognize him. The news was soon spread over the city that Dr. Wilson was in the city, and prominent citizens flocked to the station in great numbers to see the man about whom more is being said nowadays than any other man in the country, President Taft, possibly excepted.

"I certainly feel at home among you people down here," he remarked: "I always feel like I am at home when I come down here." When asked for something for publication, he said the people here must feel a great interest in the tobacco trust decision. He stated that he had not yet had time to read the decision in the Standard Oil case, but that it seemed that the court was on dangerous ground. Continuing, he said: "The Democrats have no reason to be terrified these days. The Democrats in Congress are making a record for themselves. Their course has been most wise and they are gaining the confidence of the people as never before."

Governor Wilson would make no reply to inquiries regarding his candidacy for the Presidency, saying that the election was too far off to talk about it. After much persuasion, he finally consented to be taken to Chapel Hill ahead of the committee which was to come after him and he was driven over in Judge Manning's automobile.

OKLAHOMA CITY CAPITAL.

Oklahoma Case Decided by U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, May 29.—The capitol of Oklahoma will remain at Oklahoma City, so far as the Supreme Court of the United States is concerned. That tribunal today declined to hold that the Oklahoma statute, enacted last December to remove the capital from Guthrie was unconstitutional.

W. H. Coyle, as an Oklahoma tax payer, brought suit under a special act giving the Supreme Court of Oklahoma jurisdiction to determine the constitutionality of the law removing the capitol to Oklahoma City.

This law was attacked on the ground that it directly conflicted with the Oklahoma Statehood act establishing the capital at Guthrie until 1913. An ordinance to that effect was adopted by the Oklahoma constitutional convention, but it was not incorporated into the State constitution.

The Oklahoma Supreme Court held that the ordinance was not a part of the State's fundamental law, that the provision of the enabling act was void and the Oklahoma statute constitutional. Justice Lurton announced the court's opinion. The equality of the States would be disturbed, he said, if the enabling act was to be interpreted to prevent Oklahoma from locating its capital as the other States of the Union may do. Justices Holmes and McKenna dissented.

Fall River, Mass., May 29.—Positive assurance that President Taft will attend the Fall River Cotton Carnival, the third week in June, was received by the carnival committee today from Congressman William F. Greene. Mr. Greene said that the President had told him he would be present June 20, 21, or 22, the exact date to be fixed later.

IMPORTANT ACTION IN SUPREME COURT

Hours of Service Law for Railroad Employes Upheld in Decision.

DECIDES THE FOOD LAW CASE

In Favor of Dr. O. A. Johnson, of Kansas City—Railroad Case Was Brought by B. & O. Railroad —The Features.

Washington, May 29.—"The hours of service law for railroad employes," passed by Congress in 1907, was upheld today as constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States. This decision was announced by Justice Hughes in the test suit instituted by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company.

The act made it unlawful for any common carrier engaged in inter-State commerce to permit any trainman subject to the act to remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours, or any telegraph operator more than nine or thirteen hours, according to the time the telegraph station was opened for business. The act also created periods of rest for the employes.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co., attacked the law as unconstitutional on the ground that it applied to intra-State as well as to inter-State railroads and employes. The order by which the Inter-State Commerce Commision placed the law into operation was attacked also. The railroad claimed that Congress could not and did not attempt to delegate to the commission the power to require reports of violation of the law; that the labor and expense necessary to make the reports constituted a taking of the railroad's property without due process of law and therefore, in violation of the constitution; and that it compelled self-incrimination by officers and employes of the railroad, also in violation of the constitution.

The objections to the law were met with the denials by the government. Both the law itself and the order, drafted by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, were upheld as constitutional by the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Maryland, where the case originated.

Medicine which is nothing but sweetened water or pills composed of colored mud may be labelled "cures" and sold as such with impunity under the National Pure Food and Drugs Act, according to a decision rendered today by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dr. O. A. Johnson, of Kansas City, Mo. Provided, there is no mis-statement on the bottle or package as to its contents, the manufacturer is free to sell his goods. Justice Holmes announced the majority opinion, Justice Hughes delivering a dissenting opinion in which Justices Harlan and Day concurred.

The court acknowledged that "in a certain sense the statement on the label was false, or, at least, misleading;" but it held that the language of the pure food law is such that the statement contained therein as to the meaning of misbranding "is aimed not at all possible false statements, but only at such as determine the identity of the article, possibly including its strength, quality and purity.'

If a label were to state that the contents of a bottle was water when as a matter of fact it was other than water, it would come under the misbranding in the meaning of the law, according to today's opinion. But the opinion adds that when the statement on the box or bottle of medicine is "shown to be false only in its commendatory and prophetic aspect," when the contents were "undescribed and unknown," it did not come within the act.

Johnson was indicted in the Federal court of Misouri, in 1909, on the charge of having violated the Pure Food and Drugs Act of 1906. It was alleged that Johnson, doing business under the name of a company, shipped from one State to another certain articles designated as "Cancerine Tablets," etc., the labels upon which were false and misleading in that they implied that the articles would cure and were effective in bringing about the cure of cancer. It was alleged in the indictment that this statement was untrue and the articles were worthles and ineffective for such purposes.

The indictment was squashed on the ground that the Pure Food and Drugs Act was restrained to prevention of mis-statements about the ingredients of drugs, and did not include the prevention of mis-statements about the curative properties of medicines. The government appealed to the Supreme Court. It was the first case to come to the court under the drug section of the act.

In the arguments before the Supreme Court, the government admitted that the construction it put upon the law would probably break up the patent medicine business in this country. On behalf of Dr. Johnson, it was contended that if the government's view prevailed that every physician would become a criminal if he prescribed for a patent in another State and made any suggestion as to the efficiency of his prescription. It was stated also that the biggest trust in the United States, the medical trust, dominated by the so-called regular physicians, would be delighted if the patent medicine concerns were put out of business by this case.

TO RE-ADJUST STEEL PRICES

Action of Corporation as Result of Recent Reduction of Republic Company—New Scale Ready by June 1st.

New York, May 29.—The United States Steel Corporation has decided to make a re-adjustment of prices. The action is in reply to the bombshell thrown into the steel market last Wednesday by the Republic Iron & Steel Company in announcing a cut in steel bars.

Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, gave out a statement tonight, following a luncheon at which he entertained here today prominent representatives of the subsidiary companies of the steel corporation and independent manufacturers. The Republic Iron & Steel Company was, however, without representation.

The new scale of prices is upon steel bars and plate and structural steel, black steel, steel billets, sheets, bars, galvanized and blue annealed sheets. The changes become effective June 1st. It was the unanimous opinion that co-operation should be continued.

Opinions were expressed that recent developments seemed to require changes in prices.

The commodities affected with the new prices, are as follows:

Steel bars (15 cents per hundred pounds off), $1.25 base; plates and structural, (five cent per hundred pounds off), $1.35 base; black sheets, (20 cents per hundred pounds off), 2 cents per hundred pound for No. 28 gauge.

Galvanized sheets 3 cents per pound No. 28 gauge.

Blue annealed sheets (10 cents per hunderd pound off), $1.50 per pound for No. 10 gauge.

Steel billets, four inches square and larger, $21 per gross ton.

Sheet bars, $22 per gross ton.

All prices f.o.b cars at Pittsburg, Pa., effective June 1st, 1911, for shipment prior to October 1st, 1911.

It was intimated by some of the manufacturers that there would be no prices changed in rails, wire and tin plate.

CAROLINA CASE DECIDED.

Question as to Time for Producing Books at Trial.

Washington, May 29.—A century's mooted legal question was passed upon today by the Supreme Court of the United States when it decided that the Federal statute requiring the production of books for examination "in a trial" meant production "on" or "at" trial and not "before" trial.

The case in point was a suit of David J. Winn, a cotton yarn manufacturer at Sumter, S. C., to recover from Carpenter, Baggott & Company, cotton brokers, of New York, damages claimed for selling out without his consent contracts for purchase of cotton in 1906.

"The court's direction to the firm to exhibit their books before trial and to permit Winn to investigate, copy and make abstracts of them was not complied with on the ground that the court had no authority to make such an order. The judgment of $2,240 in default was entered against the firm."

Justice Lurton announced today's opinion.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE.

Teams Showing Fine Form—Schedule for Week and Standing of Teams.

The Sunday School Baseball League has just rounded out its third week, and different teams have showed more spirit during the past week than at any time since the first. During the last week the St. James and First Presbyterian teams went together and caused a break in the percentage columns for top place. The game between these two teams was very exciting, as up to the sixth inning the score was one to nothing in favor of the St. James' boys. The Presbyterians got together and by the end of the ninth had scored five runs, thus winning the game. The features were the fine base running of the Presbyterians, good pitching of McIntyre and Williams, and the catching of W. McIntyre. The schedule for this week is as follows: Wednesday, Y. M. C. A. vs. Good Shepherd; Thursday, St. Thomas vs. St. James; Friday, Presbyterians vs. Boys' Brigade. The standing of the clubs to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
First Presbyterian	3	0	1,000
St. James	2	1	.666
St. Thomas	2	1	.666

TERRY GETS A HAT.

Messrs. J. W. Fleet Co., Present It for Hitting Bull.

Saturday night just before closing time the store of J. W. Fleet Co., was the scene of a little ceremony, the occasion being the presentation of a brand new Stetson hat to Charlie Terry, the heavy hitting first baseman of the Atlantic Coast Line baseball team, who on Saturday afternoon poled a long drive out over center field, which ended up squarely on the big Bull Durham sign. The Fleet Company had a standing offer last season of a hat to every player who hit the Bull, and they stated yesterday that this offer would hold good with the City League this season, and that the lucky swatters need only call at their store, corner Front and Princess streets, to be fitted with the latest in a Stetson with their compliments.

AS TO PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Declared Not A Country Foreign to the United States.

Washington, May 29.—That the Philippine Islands are not a country foreign to the United States so far as the revenue laws are concerned was again decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, when it held that importers of cigars from Cuba were not entitled to bring them into this country at a rate of duty 20 per cent. less than was paid on Philippine cigars.

The contention of the importers of Cuban tobacco was based on a treaty between Cuba and the United States by which the duty on Cuban cigars was to be 20 per cent. less than that on cigars imported from "another country."

Profit by a Wilmington citizen's experience.

Mrs. W. W. Mince, 712 Vollers St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time kidney trouble clung to me and I was caused great annoyance by the kidney secretions. My back ached and I did not seem able to get a minute's peace. Some days I was hardly able to move around to attend to my work. At last I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Bellamy's drug store and they restored me to good health." (Statement given February 24, 1908.)

Always Effective.

Mrs. Mince was interviewed on December 27, 1910, and she said: "I can still speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them as being good for kidney trouble. During the past two years I have taken this remedy and it has always had a prompt and beneficial effect."

senting views expressed by Associate Justice Harlan and by other critics of the decision. Tonight it is regarded as settled that the 'rule of reason' will prevail throughout the land in the interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law until at least the personnel of the court greatly changes or the Sherman anti-trust law is amended.

In reality the decision was nothing less than a deliberate exemplification of the application of the "rule of reason." To "undisputed facts." From the date of the organization of the first combination the court found that there was a purpose to acquire dominion and control of the tobacco trade, not by the mere exertion of the ordinary right to contract and to trade, but by methods devised in order to monopolize the trade, by driving competitors out of business. This purpose was carried out ruthlessly, according to the court, upon the assumption that to work upon the theory or play upon the cupidity of competitors would make success possible. Such action viewed in the "light of reason" as regarded by the court, was violative of the law.

On practically every point on which the government appealed from the decision of the lower court, it scored a victory today. In the first place James B. Duke and the twenty-eight other individual defendants were held to be parties to the unlawful combination instead of being freed from further responsibility in the case, as directed by the court below.

Instead of dismissing the bill as to the Imperial Tobacco Company, the so-called British Turts, and as to the British-American Tobacco Company, the creature of the two parent tobacco "trusts," these two corporations were held to be co-operators in the unlawful combination. So, too, was the United Cigar Stores Company, a retail organization with stores throughout the country.

The court confessed that great difficulties had been encountered in the consideration of the case because of the many new aspects of the Sherman anti-trust law which it presented. These difficulties extended to the preparation of a satisfactory decree. In this connection the court expressed itself as solicitous of procuring a remedy which would be complete and efficacious and yet result in as little injury as possible, both to the public and the private interests involved. The court believed that putting the matter in the hands of the lower court for the purpose of working out a method of dissolution and recreation with the understanding that unless the law was complied with the combination must retire from Interstate commerce or go into the hands of a receiver was the best solution of the problem.

Unlike the Standard Oil Company, which made no move today for a rehearing, William R. Perkins, as counsel for the American Tobacco Company, asked the court after thhe announcement of the decision for leave to present a petition and to stay the issuance of the mandate of the court for 30 days. The request was granted. Shortly after the court adjourned until next October.

Chief Justice White's opinion may be grouped into three parts. First, he gave a detailed statement of the history of the case and dwelt on what he designated as the "undisputed facts."

Next he took up the meaning of the Sherman anti-trust law and its application of the case at bar, and lastly he considered the remedies to be applied.

At the outset of his statement of facts, he calssified the 65 American corporate defendants into three groups. The American Tobacco Company, "because of its dominant relation to the subject matter of the controversy," was designated as the "primary defendant." The American Snuff Company, the American Cigar Company, the American Stogie Company, the MacAndrews & Forbes Company, and the Conley Foil Company were named as "accessory defendants." The 59 other American corporations were denominated the "subsidiary defendants." The two English corporations, the Imperial Tobacco Company and the British-American Tobacco Company, as well as the 29 individual defendants headed by James B. Duke, remained unclassified.

The "undisputed facts," in the case were divided by the Chief Justice into two periods, the one being from the time of the organization of the first, or old American Tobacco Company, in 1890, to the organization of the Continental Tobacco Company in 1898, and the other being from the date of that organization to the beginning of the case under review.

In taking up the construction and application of the Sherman anti-trust law Chief Justice White said that if the law was applicable to the entire situation presented in the tobacco case, and was adequate to afford relief, "it can only be because that law will be given a more comprehensive application than has been affixed to it in previous decisions."

The necessity for relief for so many aspects, the Chief Justice said, had evidently led the government to resort to methods of construction which were incompatible, and at the same time the defendants had not been able to do much better with the situation. The difficulties which arose, according to the Chief Justice, grew out of a plain conception of both the letter and spirit of the anti-trust act. He added that the obscurity and resulting uncertainty which had enshrined the Sherman anti-trust act had been removed by the consideration the court had given the law in the Standard Oil cose recently decided. The Chief Justice then launched forth into a defense of the "rule of reason" law as laid down by the court in the Standard Oil case.

He said: "In that case it was held without departing from any previous decision of the court, that as the statute had not defined the words restraint of trade it became necessary to construe these words, a duty which only could be discharged by a resort to reason. We say the doctrine thus stated was in accord with all the previous decisions of this court, despite the fact that the contrary view was sometimes erroneously attributed to some of the expressions used in two prior decisions (the trans-Missouri Freight Association and joint traffic cases). That such view was a mistaken one was fully pointed out in the Standard Oil case."

The court next took up the problem of determining whether the acts, contracts, etc., complained of, were of such "an unusual and wrongful character as to bring them within the prohibitions of the law."

On this point the Chief Justice said: "The history of the combination is so replete with the doing of acts which it was the obvious purpose of the statute to forbid so demonstrative of the existence from the beginning of a purpose to acquire dominion and control of the tobacco trade, not by the mere exertion of the ordinary right to contract and to trade, but by methods devised in order to monopolize the trade by driving competitors out of business, which were ruthlessly carried out upon the assumption that to work upon the fears or play upon the cupidity of competitors would make success possible."

Lastly the Chief Justice took up a consideration of the treaty to be applied. With the combination as a whole with all its co-operating and associated parts violating the first section of the Sherman law in regard to restraint of trade and the second section in reference to attempts to monopolize or a monopolization, the Chief Justice declared that the relief must be wider than that awarded by the lower court. The circuit court he said, had merely decided that certain of the corporate defendants constituted combinations in violation of the first section of the act of the fact that they were formed by the union of previously competing concerns.

In arriving at the proper relief the court said that it had been guided by three dominant influences, the first of these was described as "the duty of giving complete and efficacious effect to the prohibitions of the statute."

The second was described as the duty of "accompanying this result with as little injury as possible to the general public."

The third was spoken of as "a proper regard for the vast interests of private property which may have become vested in many persons as a result of the acquisition either by way of stock ownership or otherwise of interests in the stock or securities of the combination without any guilty knowledge or intent in any way to become actors or participants in the wrongs which we find to have inspired and dominated the combination from the beginning."

Hesitating to pronounce the decree, the court said that the case involved difficulty greater than had been presented by any Sherman anti-trust case which had been before the court.

At last the Chief Justice said that the decree should be as follows:

First, That the combination in and of itself, as well as each and all of the elements composing it, whether corporate or individuals, whether considered collectively or separately, be decreed to be in restraint of trade and an attempt to monopolize and a monopolization within the first and second sections of the anti-trust law.

Second, That the court below, in order to give effective force to our decree in this regard be directed to hear the parties, by evidence or otherwise, as it may be deemed proper, for the purpose of ascertaining and determining upon some plan or method of dissolving the combination and of recreating out of the elements now composin it, a new condition which shall be honestliy in harmony with and not repugnant to the law.

Third, That for the accomplishment of these purposes, taking in view the difficulty of the situation, a period of six months is allowed from the receipt of our mandate with leave, however, in the vent in the judgment of the court below, the necessities of the situation require, to extend such period to a further time not to exceed 60 days.

Fourth, that in the event, before the expiration of the period thus fixed, a condition of disintegration in harmony with the law is not brought out, either as the consequences of the action of the court in determining an issue of the subject of in accepting a plan agreed upon, it shall be the duty of the court, either by way of an injunction restraining the movement of the products of the combination in the channeds of interstate or foreign commerce or by the appointment of a receiver, to give effect to the requirements of the statute.

"Pending the bringing about of the result, just stated, each and all of the defendants, individuals as well as corporations, should be restrained from doing any act which might further extend or enlarge the power of the compliance with the law without unnecessary injury to the public or the rights of private property.

"While in many substantial respects our conclusion is in accord with that reached by the court below, and while also the relief which we think should be awarded in some respects is coincident with that which the court granted, in order to prevent any complication and to clearly define the situation we think instead of affirming and modifying, our decree, in view of the broad nature of our conclusions, should be one of reversal and remand-

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Ex-Speaker Justice Welcomes Senatorial Contest—Columbia Bank May Survive—Variety of Gossip at Raleigh.

Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 29.—Hon. E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, former Speaker of the lower House of the North Carolina General Assembly, says of the impending campaign for the United States Senatorship, involving the seat of Senator Simmons, that there is nothing to be deprecated about a long contest, as it is to be a campaign of principles rather than a personal campaign; that the principles that the four candidates represent are to be weighed and passed upon by the people. Indeed, he believes that such a long-drawn out campaign will result in awakening the people to a more lively interest in the affairs of the State and the Nation and aid in a more speedy and proper solution of the issues. He does not think any of the candidates—Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin, ex-Governor Aycock or Chief Justice Clark—can justly complain of a discussion of their political beliefs or performances. He insists that the question for the people is what do the several candidates stand for and how zealous will they be in writing their principles into law. He insists that there should be two primaries, the first for all four candidates in the general election next November, and the other to follow in due time for only the two highest in the first primary.

State Bank Examiner J. K. Doughton, just back from Columbia, where he has been in charge of the Merchants & Farmers' Bank since the suicide of Cashier R. H. It has been found that the late cashier was $2,400 short in his accounts and that this seems to be due to loose methods of conducting the business of the bank rather than to any intentional wrong on the part of the cashier. He was about 35 years old and left a widow and two children.

CALL TO RURAL CARRIERS.

Eastern Carolina Association Meets in Wilmington Tuesday.

To the Rural Carriers of Pender, Duplin, Sampson, Onslow, New Hanover, Columbus, Bladen and Brunswick counties:

Dearly Beloved:—Tuesday, May 30, is a National holiday. We hope to meet with many if not all of you in Wilmington. It has been quite a while since we met, compared notes and expressed the fraternal views that should exist between us. We all know that through our organization and only through it can we approach the Postoffice Department and Congress, and were it not as a body, there would be nothing doing in the way of salary raise nor extra holidays. If we are content to remain in the same old ruts (by not joining the association) and make effort at improving the rural service and each others condition, we will be looked upon by the Postoffice Department as "mere hewers of wood, drawers of water and after the loaves and fishes only that are in it and not for the betterment of the service." We all know that the Department approves of our organization, since a high official always attends our State and National meetings. The membership dues are only $1.50 per annum, a mere pittance when compared with the benefits accrued—the raise in salary through the association's efforts.

Now as Vice President of the State organization and President of the Eastern North Carolina branch we will ask a full attendance. Meet at the Postoffice at 10:30 A. M., Tuesday. We will give you some information of worth to yourself, your patrons and the Department.

Then awake. Don't for once think of yourself as only a post boy—whose only duty it was to deliver mail pouches at the cross roads offices. Let us all join the R. L. C. Association and strive to make the service greater in every way in our power. And remember the maxim: "No man liveth of death to himself." Do your duty in every way. Be courteous to all. Always have a pleasant word for the children, remembering that it has only been a short while since you were a child.

Remember we send delegates to the State Convention at Winston-Salem, July 3rd and 4th. Our good friend, Senator F. M. Simmons will address the convention on the 3rd.

Baseball Monograms Awarded—Leazer Society Presentation.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., May 29.—At the meeting of the newly created Athletic Council, composed of the student managers of the four athletic teams, the Graduate Manager of Athletics, the president of the Athletic Association, the Alumni and Assistant Alumni Representatives and the three members of the Faculty Athletic Committee, held this afternoon, the following baseball monograms and stars were awarded for this season: Monograms to Page, Tucker, Farmer, Patton and Sigmon, (manager); stars to Seifert, Stafford, Robertson Hartsell, Speer, Ross and Brown. It was decided to place track athletics on the same basis as football and baseball the coming season, and to hire a competent coach.

Owing to the fact that there is now no suitable place to hold match games the Council decided it would be unwise to place basketball on the same plane as the other teams until the gymnasium, as provided for in the proposed Y. M. C. A. building, is ready for use, which will probably be some time during the Winter of 1912. The officers of the Athletic Council are as follows: Chairman, Prof. W. C. Riddick; treasurer, J. W. Harrellson; secretary, A. T. Bowler.

Tonight in the college chapel the Leazer Literary Society presented to the college a portrait of the late Hon. Augustus Leazer, one of the earliest and most influential friends of the college. The presentation speech was made by Chief Justice Walter Clark, the portrait being accepted on behalf of the college by President Hill. A reception was held in the college library after the exercises.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent: J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Front and Grace Sts.

CLARKTON GETS RAIN.

Some Damage by Storm Friday Night—Other Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., May 29.—This section was visited by a heavy storm Friday night. The rain was a blessing to the farmers in this vicinity whose crops have been drying up for want of moisture on which to subsist. The wind blew at a terrific rate, uprooting trees and doing considerable other damage. A tree fell across the Western Prong Baptist Church, tearing off some of the outside covering boards.

Mr. Alex. Nance returned home Friday night from a trip to several Northern cities, including Boston and Baltimore.

The berry season has closed in this part of the State. The farmers are very well satisfied with prices received for the product, but the crop was very short, making matters about equal with other seasons in the past.

It's done right when it's done by Dunn.

Worthwhile Wilmingtonians are are those who are willing workers for Wilmington.

Very few men ever set the woods on fire to the extent that everybody expects of them.

Madero got Diaz out and he can now watch LaFollette working at the prize under Lorimer.

The Charlotte papers are demanding a more adequate water supply. Water wagon or chaser quality?

We know who won't be Senator if Editor Varner could vote early and often enough in accordance with his way of thinking.

Other papers are going on as usual over the "sweet-girl-graduate," but we haven't said a word about it. Nevertheless, they are.

Considerable fuss is being made because an Oklahoma editor strolled out of the State while nobody was watching. No doubt he just took a notion to leave while walking was good.

A New York woman stood in a post hole and bravely prevented an electrical companys men from erecting pole in front of her house. Why, on earth didn't they get a mouse and put it in the hole?

Congress has been looking into the high protective tariff on collars. By George, that everlasting tariff seems actually to have us by the throat. Here's where the consumer literally gets it in the neck.

A new poet goes on something wonderful in singing about "dimples." Of course, dimples speak for themselves and then some, in spite of some old didactic' dyspeptic who wrote the adage: "When a dimple's without the devil's within."

Because of religious scruples, a Kansas woman refuses to have false teeth put in. Of course, any Kansas woman can go right on chewing the rag, teeth or no teeth, but she entirely overlooks their necessity for the purpose of masticating a Kansas biscuit.

Congress might pass the Canadian reciprocity bill and save the people a little something but since the extra session began some more pension bills, calling for $45,000,000, have been brought up for consideration and may be passed. Congress is getting to be much like a Kansas legislature.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch recommends iced tea and lemonade as beverages during hot weather like we have been having. Of course, they are mighty nice and we do not hesitate to recommend them to any lady who isn't afraid of the saccharine poison that may be a constitutent of the sweetening.

President Taft hasn't denied the rumor that he wants Secretary Stimson to run for Vice President on the ticket with him. The President probably never stopped to think how it was that Stimson was beaten for Governor of New York. Indeed, Mr. Taft must be a poor politician when all the Jonahs look good to him.

It is said men have two individualities, and certainly it does look that way. One individuality seems to be wild and wooly and does things that the other individuality can't stand for. When a man disapproves of himself and feels like knocking or kicking himself, that probably is his sober-sided individuality asserting itself. The fact is these apparent individualities owe their existence to men's consciousness of right and wrong.

ADVERTISING NORTH CAROLINA.

From the seashore to the mountains we boast the varied resources of North Carolina, and it is generally agreed that North Carolina should be advertised. It has been suggested that the railroads should do it, but we might as well quit adhering to the idea that we should "Let George Do It."

What are we here for? Well, we should say we are here to make North Carolinta ourselves and not depend on the railroads any more than we depend on the manufacturers or the agriculturists or any one else to do what all interests should do and be doing right now. The railroads are mostly inter-State utilities and they are not interested in advertising our State any more than any other State. They do advertise their business as it concerns the building up of their lines, and necessarily that benefits the sections and States through which they run, but while they do their part so far as their end of the business is concerned, we should do our part so far as our end of the business is concerned.

The railroads furnish us the facilities and are willing to help us, for it helps them, but they can't do our business for us. That is what North Carolinians should do for themselves. The railroads and the waterways are here for us to utilize, and the community or the State which utilizes them to the best advantage will get the greatest benefit out of them. Like the gods of the ancients, the railroads help them who help themselves. If the towns and the country would furnish the business to warrant it, the railroads will build stations, put in modern treminals and double-track all the lines they have, but they can't do it and won't do it until we act as the parties of the first part, as the lawyers say. Then they come in as parties of the second part, and so it becomes a mutual transaction—this thing of building a city, for instance. When business makes a demand on the railroads for facilities and service, and they do not meet those demands the railroad management lacks enterprise and stands in the way of the progress of its line, but there are not many railroad operators that will do that—unless it is a question of capitall and this is a mighty big question with them more often than the layman would suppose. As a matter of fact, the railroads are doing more advertising for our States than we are doing for ourselves, but it must be admitted that they would do more if we would only do our part.

It is not a question of what the railroads have done for the West, but what has the West done for the railroads. The West started it and the railroads kept it going. The winning of the West was mutual. Florida has done more for the railroads than the railroads have done for Florida, for in carrying visitors and settlers to Florida the railroads have been utilized by Florida people and capital which built the Winter resorts and organized the land companies and the farm syndicates which furnish passenger traffic to the railroads. The parties of the first part started the ball a rolling and the railroads keep it rolling on account of business. They run the vestibule trains and the homeseekers excursions, because enterprising Florida people create the demand for them, while the railroads get busy and meet the demand. There isn't a city or community in North Carolina that wouldn't get the same facilities and the same service, if they will only create the demand. It is up to us as parties of the first part. Don't wait for George to do it. Start it first, and watch George see his opportunity and get in the game.

We don't have to go any further than Wrightsville Beach to point to an example of what the railroads will do if we take the initiative. When we start it first and there is anything in it, the railroad will be on hand to figure in it for business. Wrightsville Beach is a delightful proposition which called for Summer tourist rates and it is getting them because Mr. Hugh MacRae and the Tidewater Power Company made Wrightsville Beach an attractive objective for the railroads. "The gods help those who help themselves," and so do the railroads. Wrightsville Beach now looks good to thousands of visitors and the seaside seekers look good to the railroads.

We do not hear very much about Podunk, for Podunk isn't doing much for itself. Podunk hasn't started anything "so's you'll notice it." However, North Carolina can advertise itself by getting busy and doing things. There isn't a county in the State that couldn't get homeseekers' excursions if it has syndicate farms companies and land companies which have attractive and definite propositions to offer homeseekers. No homeseekers' excursion will ever be dumped into the woods unless there is lands, or farms or homes to be offered on some sort of terms that would make a man take a train in Minnesota to come all the way to North Carolina.

Of course, there are many other ways to advertise North Carolina, but George won't do it if we sit on our hunkers and won't start it.

GOUGERS FROM GOUGERSVILLE

The Charlotte Chronicle notes from a report in the Kings Mountain Herald that "the Southern Power Company has encountered right-of-way gougers in that vicinity, and that as an outcome the inter-urban line may go around that town." Of course, that would be bad for the town of Kings Mountain, while the obstacles to the town's progress may really be one or more men who belong to the mossback brigade or whose sole interest is one of selfishness:

"We want to emphasize the fact," says the Herald, "that it is unwise to make a practice of robbing corporations just because they are corporations and have money and can be robbed. We have no special interest in the Southern Power Company, and are only interested in fair play and want this corporation and all other corporations to get the same consideraions from the people that the individual citizen gets. Nothing more. The property owners of this city could well afford to give the right-of-way to the promoters of this enterprise rather than lose this great inter-urban project."

Col. Wade H. Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, adds this to what the Herald says:

"The Southern Power Company does not ask for free rights-of-way. It does ask, however, for fair treatment, and that only. It deals fairly and liberally with landowners and with all who have dealings with it, and those who think it legitimate prey will find themselves mistaken."

Unfortunately, most every community has its gougers and mossbacks who are stumbling blocks to progress. A live wire, once upon a time, was invited to a town to look it over and report upon what was necessary for the progress of the community. He performed the tasks required of him, and this was his report: "The most necessary thing to make this town go forward is to have a few first-class funerals." Of course, he was promptly run out of the town, but it wasn't his fault, for in sizing up the town he had run across its mossbacks, its gougers, and its dead ducks —the hidebound, selfish reactionaries, who think more about themselves than they do of their own communities. With many of that kind on hand a town just has to drag along and do the best it can until the cemetery begins to gather them in. In a case like that, Father Time has to be depended upon, for it is unlawful to use the axe under any sort of provocation.

Editor Harris, no doubt, remembers what a great stir there was when it was proposed to build the Piedmont Air Line from Charlotte to Atlanta, now a link in the Southern's great trunk line from New Orleans to New York. Today the Piedmont outstrips all portions of the South because of the construction of that railroad, the one great factor which has brought about a development that is one of the marvels of the South's industrial era. Spartanburg and Greenville were hardly on the map, while Gaffney, Gastonia, Kings Mountain and other prosperous towns were never heard of till the trains began to thunder along and awaken them to growth. Cross-roads have become thriving cities of 10,000 or more population, the country is a hive of industry, and it is the hives of industry that the Dukes' inter-urban line proposes to connect with electric railways. When the counties and towns were stirred up on the question of voting bonds to build the Air Line a very influential man in York county, South Carolina, took the warpath against bonds and carried the day against the strong fight made for the railroad by the lamented L. M. Grist, of the Yorkville Enquirer. The result was that the Air Line skirted the entire northern portion of York county and so the beautiful town of Yorkville was left an isolated victim to be sapped by the growth of Gastonia, Gaffney, Kings Mountain, and perhaps other places. The deed was done by a mossback, a mighty fine old gentleman who couldn't see any farther than his nose. He fills the grave of a town killer.

No doubt Kings Mountain gougers who are blocking the electric interurban would greatly benefit from the increased value of their property because of the line, but they can't see that far ahead. Indeed, it would pay them to donate the right-of-way to get the line through their property, but they prefer to squeeze a dollar till the eagle squawks. They make so much noise over 30 cents that they will scare the fish away, and the worst of it is, there are some people who actually scare away industries and enterprises by just such short-sightedness and selfishness as actuates the reactionaries at Kings Mountain. They may prove to be Kings Mountain's Jonahs.

It is hoped that all Jonahs will read this, so they won't die and go where the town killers go.

CHOICE BETWEEN ROBBERS.

"What is 'reasonable monopoly?'" inquires a contemporary which is uselessly wasting sleep over the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, which, laboring long and painfully, came to the deliberate conclusion that some monopolies are "reasonable" and can restrain trade without being molested, while others are "unreasonable" and liable to be raked over the coals if they don't get to be "reasonable" in their methods.

We are surprised to know that anyone should not know what "reasonable monopoly" is. Why, it's like this, for instance. It is a corporation which acts ladylike while it squeezes the jiblets out of you and strains every nerve in restraint of trade without having to resort to the unfair, obstreperous, nefarious and illegal methods of scuttling any other pirate that wants to divide the spoils with it. If the Supreme Court of the United States has no objection, it will please read the dissenting opinion of Associate Justice Harlan in order to get some other facts in this same connection.

It should be stated, however, that we speak only as a laymanistic consumer who has a fool notion that there is a mere difference, without any distinction whatsoever, as to whether you loose your wad at the hands of a masked man or an unmasked man. Wherefore, and also, lo and behold! the question before the House is whether extortion under some guise or other is any more endurable than it is under some disguise or other.

Some one has suggested that the present city hall be transformed into a city high school. The advocate of this idea declares that the present city hall is admirably designed for a public school building, and would house a larger number of pupils. The inadequacy of the present system should make every one interested in the subject of education willing to consider carefully any proposition which offers even a partial remedy. It is further pointed out that if the city should follow this course, and then take over the auditorium, the latter building would afford ample room for the accommodation of city offices, etc. while the hall itself might be kept for the same purposes to which it is put at present. We have not gone into the details of this plan, but on its face it strikes us as being one meriting careful investigation. If it is posible to utilize both buildings as stated it would be unnecessary to spend several thousand dollars planned at present to get the old city hall in shape for use of city officials.—Charlotte News.

In a few days the Charlotte township trustees and county commissioners will begin the work of equipping Mecklenburg's macadam roads with the "binder." Like the beginning of the macadam work, twenty odd years ago, the beginning of the binder work will be on a small scale. As The Chronicle understands it, three miles have been contracted for. The trustees will carry it to the township line and the commissioners will carry it on into the country. The road selected for the first treatment of the binder is the Camden-Yorkville road. Part of the work will be carried on out by County Commissioner Long's and part out on the Placville road. The binder to be used is the Indian asphalt, the same that has converted the macadam road between Greensboro and High Point into such a magnificent highway. The Indian asphalt binder has stood the test there, as in many other localities, notably about Atlanta. It kills the dust evil, as it makes practically dustless roads. It is to be hoped that this binder will be progressively spread over all the good roads in Mecklenburg county — Charlotte Chronicle.

CONSTRUCTION OF WORD MALT

Section of Revenue and Machinery Act Does Not Conflict With Law Prohibiting Sale of Near-Beer—No License.

The life of the legalized near-beer saloon in Wilmington is growing very short. Wednesday night at 9 o'clock the saloons will have to close not to re-open again unless, in the meantime, the City Council decides to grant license until the 1st of July, when the State law prohibiting the sale of near-beer goes into effect, and this is exceedingly doubtful. Nor will the near-beer dealers be permitted to operate under malt license, in which they have placed their hope ever since Section 61 of the Revenue and Machinery Act was discovered some weeks ago, this section providing for an annual tax for the State of $10 for those engaged in the manufacture or buying or selling malt, an opinion from the Attorney General's office having been received to the effect that the word malt does not really mean a beverage.

The opinion was received yesterday by City Attorney Herbert McClammy, who had requested a construction of the section by the Attorney General. The letter is from the Assistant Attorney General and is as follows:

"Raleigh, N. C., May 26, 1911.

"Mr. Herbert McClammy, Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—Yours of the 16th came duly to hand and should have been answered sooner, but for the fact that we have been very busy and Mr. Bickett has been out of the office a good deal of the time representing the State in some important matters.

"He went over the question set out in your letter with me and asked me to write you in regard to the matter.

"Section 61 of the Revenue Act says: 'Every person, firm or corporation engaged in or conducting the business of manufacturing or buying or selling malt shall pay an annual tax of ten dollars.'

"I think this apparent conflict in the statutes can be disposed of by giving the term malt its real meaning. As a rule, of course, the term implies a beverage, but in fact, it is no beverage at all. It is defined in Hollender v. Magone, 38 Fed. 912, as follows: 'Malt is barley or other grain steeped in water until it germinates, and then dried in a kiln, thus evolving the saccharine principles. It is used in brewing to make malt drinks which consists in preparing drinks by the infusion of malt, as beer, ale, and porter.'

"Webster's International Dictionary defines malt to be 'Barley or other grain steeped in water and dried in a kiln, thus forcing fermentation until the saccharine principle has been evolved. It is used in brewing, and the distillation of whiskey.'

"See U. S. v. Cohn, 52 S. W. 38.

"The common and approved usage of the term 'Malt Liquor', is 'an alcoholic liquor, as beer, ale, porter, prepared by fermentation and infusion of malt.'

"See State v. Gill, 95 N. W., 449. Alder v. State, 55 Ala. 16.

"It seems to me that this disposes of the matter, without raising the question of the conflict of the statutes. "Very truly yours,

"G. L. JONES,

"Assistant Attorney General."

Mr. McClammy read this opinion at the special meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon. It is in line with that given by the city attorney when the matter was up for consideration last week, when Mr. McClammy stated that evidently the section was incorporated in the Revenue Act because it had been stated that a large quantity of malt was being shipped into North Carolina for distillation purposes without the payment of any tax, and that it did not refer to malt extract. It is understood that the near-beer dealers had hoped to continue in business by taking out a malt license. They may obtain a malt license from the county, but there is no such thing as a city malt license.

The matter of granting license to the near-beer saloons, of which there are 42 in Wilmington, until the 1st of July, when the State law prohibiting their existence goes into effect, was discussed again yesterday, some one having stated to Mayor Smith that the dealers could operate in the city whether the Council granted license or not. The city attorney said that it was with the Council to say whether it would grant license and that if any person operated without license he could be indicted. Councilman Tiencken thought the city may grant the license for the month and receive the $1,000 revenue. However, there was no action and again it was the understanding that no license be granted for the month of June.

WILMIGTON TO NEWBERN

Pathfinder Automobile Trip Made in the Interest of Good Roads—Actual Running Time Less Than Nine Hours.

To arouse interest in road improvement in the adjoining counties, Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., trustee of the Charlotte-Wilmington Highway Association, is making a series of automobile tours to the larger towns in this part of the State and collecting data on the best roads for through travel from Wilmington and in all directions, and Sunday a trip was made to Newbern, in the party besides Mr. MacMillan being Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, the well known civil engineer and good roads enthusiast; Messrs. Wm. Bloomfield, S. G. MacMillan, and Bruce B. Cameron.

Wilmington is the natural hub of Southeastern North Carolina and the local enthusiasts on good roads believe it should be made much more accessible to other cities and towns in this section by improvement of the public roads leading out across the adjoining counties. New Hanover has done well, but on any of the radiating roads, very poor going is encountered as soon as the county line is crossed. The trip on May 28th was to Newbern via Kinston, and the start was at 5:54 A. M. from Second and Princess streets. Crossing Northeast river at 6:24 a distance of 10 miles. Rocky Point was reached at 6:48, Burgaw at 7:22 and the route was thence via Wallace, Teachey's, Magnolia, Kenansville, crossing Neuse river for Kinston at 2:15 P. M., a distance of 100.5 miles. The party arrived at Kinston at 2:19 P. M., and left Kinston for Newbern at 4:02 P. M., arriving at the Hotel Gaston at 6:20 P. M., a distance of 145 miles.

The principal stops were made at Wallace, Kenansville and Kinston. The party took dinner at Kinston and did not lose an opportunity at any of the points to talk good roads. The total time lost on stops was three hours and 46 minutes, the total time on tour being 12 hours and 26 minutes. The actual running time was eight hours and 40 minutes.

The road was found to be mainly in good condition with the exception of a few stretches of heavy sand similar to the stretch just across the Northeast river with which Wilmington people are generally familiar. These were encountered between Kenansville and Kinston and between Dover and Cove.

About six miles of intelligent road work has been done on the northern part of the Duplin road in Pender county. From Jasper to Newbern, a distance of 12 miles, there is a well built sand-clay road. Over a great part of the route taken the condition of the road could be easily improved by a little careful ditching and dragging of the surface after each rain.

Messrs. Rapalje, Cameron and S. G. MacMillan returned to Wilmington yesterday on the train, but Messrs. MacMillan and Bloomfield will remain in Newbern and vicinity until Thursday.

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATIONS.

Ladies of Wilmington Delighted With Mrs. Whitted's Methods.

The "Standing Room Only" sign was hung up at the cooking demonstrations last night before 8:15. As was the case last Summer, Wilmington housekeepers flocked to the demonstrations, and all seemed to enjoy the preparation and "extermination" of the many toothsome and delectible morsels prepared as only Mrs. Whitted can.

The following from Charlotte will be of interest to Mrs. Whitted's friends in this city: "Mrs. Whitted is probably the country's greatest authority on cooking with gas, using a great variety of recipes. These demonstrations have been held by Mrs. Whitted in cities all over the country and are of absorbing interest to housekeepers, many thousands having attended them."

The demonstrations will be given again tonight on North Fourth street, details of which are given in the advertising columns of this paper.

REGISTRARS OF ELECTION.

Will Meet This Afternoon With County Board of Elections.

Chairman Cameron F. MacRae, of the County Board of Elections, last night called a meeting of the registrars for the bond election to be held in the Court House at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of conferring with the County Board of Elections relative to the election tomorrow. It is desired that all registrars in the county attend this meeting.

The Board of Elections held a meeting yesterday at noon, at which Mr. R. C. DeRosset qualified as a member of the board, having been appointed by the State chairman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., which was sent to the State chairman some time last week. The county board is now composed of the following: Cameron F. MacRae, Esq., chairman; William Struthers, Jr., and R. C. DeRosset.

INCREASE WEIGHT QUICKLY.

Simple Way for the Thin and Pale to Be Plump and Rosy.

Samose can hardly be termed a medicine, it is in reality a flesh-forming food taken before or after meals, it mingles with the food you eat, enables it to assimilate and readily digest, so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness.

After Samose has been used a week or ten days a noticeable gain in weight is seen. The sallow complexion will become rosy, the sunken cheeks will have a ruddy glow, the eyes will be bright, the breath sweet and the step elastic.

J. Hicks Bunting's customers have told him of the remarkable results following the use of Samose, the great flesh-forming food, and he is so thoroughly convinced of its reliability that he is selling it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. You who are thin and in poor health cannot afford to let another day pass without getting a 50c. box of Samose on those terms.

MR. DOOLEY KILLED IN WRECK

Wilmington Boy and Two Engineers Lost Their Lives Sunday Afternoon When Trestle Collapsed With Coal Train.

Hundreds of friends learned with deep regret of the tragic death of Mr. Roy Dooley, 23 years old, son of Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Dooley, of this city, which occurred Sunday afternoon, when a Seaboard Air Line freight train on which he was fireman plunged through a wooden trestle at Ellenboro, near Bostic. It was a double-header train and Engineers J. M. Lindsey and Rod R. Green were killed also, while the other fireman, a negro, and the colored brakeman, were perhaps fatally injured. A message from Ellenboro last night was to the effect that the bodies of Fireman Dooley and Engineer Lindsey were still buried beneath the debris, though two wrecking crews are hard at work trying to remove the wreckage and recover the bodies.

The first news of the wreck was received here Sunday night in a telegram to Capt. and Mrs. Dooley informing them of the tragic death of their son, who was very popular with a wide circle of friends in this city and whose untimely death has caused profound sorrow and draws to the bereaved the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends. His parents reside at No. 6 Queen street. Accompanied by their daughters, Misses Nellie and Mary Dooley, sisters of the deceased, they left yesterday morning for Charlotte, the former home of the elder Mr. Dooley, where the funeral and interment will take place when the body has been recovered.

Mr. Dooley was about 23 years old and had been in the employ of the Seaboard in the capacity of fireman for about three years. He was about ready to receive the promotion to the position of engineer. For the past year or two he had made his headquarters in Monroe, but came to Wilmington frequently. He was a member of St. Thomas' Catholic Church and was affiliated with the Wilmington Lodge, Knights of Columbus. He had many warm friends who were shocked and saddened to learn of his tragic death.

The wreck occurred three miles west of Ellenboro and two miles east of Bostic at 5:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The train was moving slowly eastbound and had passed nearly over the trestle when it gave way, both engines falling a depth of 40 feet and 17 steel coal cars piling on the engines. The second engine, on which were Engineer Lindsay and Fireman Dooley, was covered up completely and neither man has as yet been located. Engineer Lindsay's people live at Cherryville, while he made his home in Monroe. His remains were taken to an undertaker at Shelby and prepared for burial.

Conductor F. B. Howell, of Charlotte, was in the caboose on the rear of the train and was uninjured. Early Lewis, the colored fireman on Mr. Green's engine, felt the trestle give and jumped in time to save his life, although he is painfully and perhaps fatally injured about the head and shoulders. Lon Lealy, a colored brakeman, was on the tender of the second engine. He has a broken back and the doctors say he will not recover. The following Associated Press dispatch was received last night:

Ellenboro, N. C., May 29.—Though two wrecking crews worked all night and all day, so deeply are the bodies of the victims in yesterday's wreck at Watkins Trestle buried that at dark tonight two had not been recovered. Engineer Green was dug from his burning cab in 30 minutes after the crash, but the bodies of Engineer Lindsay and Fireman Dooley are still in the mass of debris. It will probably be Wednesday morning before schedules can be resumed on that division of the Seaboard.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Negro Received Six Months for Larceny of Pair of Gloves.

John Gilmore, colored, was the principal defendant in yesterday's session of the recorder's court. It was charged that he stole a pair of gloves from his employers, the firm of C. H. Fore & Co., well known dry goods dealers. The warrant upon which he was arrested late Saturday night alleged the larceny of a pair of silk hose, but it developed yesterday that it was a pair of gloves and not hose he carried away from the store without the proper authority, so the warrant was changed to charge larceny of a pair of gloves. Of this charge Gilmore was convicted without any trouble and was given a term of six months on the county roads.

M. Wilson and Willie Haulsley, colored, were given hearing on the charge of assault with deadly weapon, to-wit: a razor, on Jasper Sneed, colored. The negro was not seriously wounded, it was stated. The defendants were fined $25 each and costs. J. T. Burriss, a young white man, was fined $25 and costs for resisting an officer, and in a case charging drunkenness judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs. Odia Whitfield, colored, was found not guilty of a charge of vagrancy. A. B. Blake, colored, was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and a like fine was entered against Ross Kennedy, a young white man, tried some days ago on a similar offense. Wilford Peterson, colored, charged with assault with deadly weapon on Daws Davis, was required to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

NOT FOR CONSOLIDATION

City and County Will Continue to Maintain Separate Health Offices for Awhile at Least—Recommendations.

For the purpose of receiving the report of the committee on the proposition to consolidate the city and county health offices, there was a joint meeting of the City Council and the County Board of Health in the Mayor's office at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The committee looked with disfavor upon the consolidation proposition at this time but believed it would be advisable later and recommended that the city make arrangements with some physician to attend indigent sick who are not in condition to be taken to the hospital for treatment.

The report was made orally by Dr. Edward J. Wood, a member of the committee, representing the County Board of Health, who has given no little of his time during the past few years in the interest of public health. The committee realized that consolidation of the two offices would be the best thing to do under ordinary circumstances, but did not think it advisable now as the county has already employed a county superintendent of health to give all of his time to the work. The city should employ the most skilled physician possible to give all or nearly all his time to the work of looking after the health of the community, and arrangements should be made with some physician to attend, upon the written request of the city or county superintendent of health or either of the two district nurses, all the indigent sick who cannot be taken care of at the hospital, which does not take tuberculosis patients, the expense of this to be borne jointly by the city and county. Wherever possible the patient is to be sent to the hospital instead of being treated at his home. This was a recommendation of the committee. Then, the committee further recommended, it should be the duty of the city superintendent of health to investigate accidents and sudden deaths on the streets which are not inquired into by the coroner. Also, there should be a thorough understanding between the city and county as where the work of one ends and the other begins. The committee suggested that a conference be held between physicians, county and city superintendents of health and the undertakers in order that there may be a better understanding regarding death and birth certificates. It was stated at the meeting that there is now a deficit in birth certificates at the health departments, in other words, not nearly all the deaths are reported.

There followed a general discussion of local health conditions, which have not improved any in the past year, according to physicians. Councilman P. Q. Moore said that the city should employ an expert and pay him well to determine the cause of typhoid fever in Wilmington, which should be entirely free from this disease. Dr. Wood remarked that the disease can be attributed to a great many causes, but no one has yet been able to state definitely the cause. The State Board of Health will send experts here this week in an endeavor to learn the cause of the infection. One of the experts will arrive today and the other will come Thursday. They will not hurry, but will remain here until they have found the cause of the trouble, so it is stated. In its efforts to improve the health conditions of the city the Council will ask for and will no doubt receive the hearty co-operation of the physicians of the city. In fact, without the co-operation of the physicians a successful campaign in the interest of improved health conditions will be well nigh impossible.

The Council will take up at the meeting this afternoon the matter of electing a superintendent of health. It is likely that the salary of such an official will be increased to $1,500 or $2,000 a year, instead of $900 now given, and will be required to give probably two-thirds of his time to the office. It is very difficult to get a physician for the office to give all or a big portion of his time to the place. There have been mentioned a number of physicians in connection with the place, though none may have been considered by the Council, and it is not known whether any would have the place if it were tendered them. Dr. Joseph Akerman, the incumbent, has been mentioned, and it is said that it is quite certain he will not stand for re-election at the same salary. Dr. Edward J. Wood, who has been foremost in the recent campaign in the interest of the health of the community, has been spoken of by some in connection with the office and a great many cherish the hope that he may be induced to take the place, as it would place him in position to be of even greater service to the entire community. However, it is feared that should Council select him that it would be asking too great a sacrifice. Dr. John Thames, who recently came to Wilmington from Greensboro, and who gave valuable services in the recent campaign against smallpox, has also been mentioned, as well as Dr. B. J. Willingham and others.

Another matter which will claim the attention of the Council this afternoon is the screen ordinance adopted by the Board of Aldermen in their closing days. Repeated efforts have been made to have ordinance repealed or modified and as yet the city officials have remained steadfast. It is announced that at the meeting this afternoon the Council will decide for all time whether or not it will modify the ordinance; it is certain that it will not be repealed.

City Attorney McClammy was instructed to notify the Atlantic Coast Line that unless it fulfills its agreement to construct a roadway near the Wynnwood box factory, suit will be instituted.

Councilman P. Q. Moore stated that he was getting ready to advertise for brick, lime, cement, lumber and all other materials which will be needed in his department in the improvement of the streets, so that the work may go forward right away and be pushed to completion. He said that the repair work which is being done now is of a permanent nature.

Attention was called to the license tax on moving picture shows. It was stated that in Charleston, S. C., the five cent theatre pays a tax of $100 a year and the 10 cent theatre a tax of $150. It was stated that this question was discussed and decided when the ordinance was adopted last week, and anyway the ordinance has already been adopted as a whole and can not well be changed.

The meeting adjourned about 6 o'clock. The meeting this afternoon will be held at 4 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BORDEAUX

Held From Immanuel Presbyterian Church Sunday Morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Gertrude Bordeaux, beloved wife of Mr. J. M. FIRE IN GARRELL BUILDING.

Office of Architect B. H. Stephens is Damaged Considerably.

Had it not been for the timely discovery of a threatening blaze on the fourth floor of the Garrell building, in the suite of rooms occupied by Architect B. H. Stephens, shortly after 11 o'clock last night, there would probably have been a serious conflagration. As it was, the damage to the building will hardly exceed $1,000, while the loss of Mr. Stephens is estimated at about $3,000, with no insurance. Mr. Stephens' loss is principally in plans, papers, etc.

Mr. Stephens and a friend were in his office until a few minutes after 11 o'clock, when they went to the post-office. Not more than 10 minutes after they left, some one observed smoke issuing from the windows on the fourth floor and called the firemen, sending in an alarm at 11:18 P. M. from box 212. The firemen were on the scene in a jiffy and the blaze was extinguished with the hand hose on the fourth floor, used by Capt. W. P. Monroe, assistant chief, and chemicals. It is said that there is some damage to the offices directly underneath, on the third floor, by water. It was stated that the fire probably started from a match thrown upon the floor just before Mr. Stephens and friend went out of the building.

Large Shipment of Chinaware.

Mr. Edgar L. Hinton, the popular manager of the Seashort hotel, on Wrightsville Beach, has just received a large shipment of chinaware from London, England. There were about 2,000 pieces and of this number only four were broken in transit. This is only another indication that the packing of goods in foreign countries is far superior to the packing in this country. The chinaware received by Mr. Hinton is for use at the popular hotel.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctors' medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs it's the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

SELLING WHISKEY CHARGED.

Ralph Kennedy Arrested Last Night —Quantity of Whiskey Found.

Charged in a warrant with selling a half pint of whiskey to Joe Hobs on May 26th, Ralph Kennedy, who conducts a near-beer saloon at corner Water and Princess streets, was arrested at 8 o'clock last night by Chief of Police John J. Fowler, who was accompanied by Assistant Chief of Police C. W. Woolard, Sergeant E. J. Grimsley and Officers T. N. Hall and T. W. Jacobs, the object in having so many officers present being to expedite the search of the establishment which was made for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not there was any whiskey in the place. Chief Fowler stated that a quantity of whiskey was found. It was not seized as there is no law which permits State officers to seize whiskey. Kennedy was taken to police headquarters, where he gave $200 bond for his appearance at trial before the Recorder this morning. This case was worked up through the efforts of Chief of Police Fowler, who has been in his new position only a short time, and it is said that other arrests may be made.

Shingle Saw Mill Near Councils Burned Saturday Morning.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Councils, N. C., May 29.—The saw and shingle mill of Mr. G. W. Stevens, about four miles north of here, was burned last Saturday, the fire supposed to be of an incendiary origin. No insurance was carried and it is a total loss to Mr. Stevens. Mr. Stevens is one of Bladen county's most popular young men, just starting out in business life, and this piece of hard luck is deplored by his many friends.

WELL-KNOWN MINISTER

Restored to Health by Vinol.

Rev. D. Schneider, who is a well-known minister in Rice Lake, Wis., writes:

"I had a very severe stomach trouble last year from which I was kept in bed three months. I had engaged the services of a doctor, but to no avail. I then read of Vinol and determined to try a bottle. Before it was used up I was out of bed, and four bottles made me a well man. Vinol is a splendid medicine and I can gladly recommend it."

Prominent men from all over the country do not hesitate to indorse this wonderful tonic.

For twelve years Vinol has been sold on the "money back" plan and every year strengthens it's popularity and proves by continued tests that it will do what we claim for it. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

Grand Theatre.

Four pictures will be on the big bill at the Grand today. Some of the greatest that have ever been shown will be among the collection. The headliner will be a famous Kalem production of "Tangled Lives," the strange culmination of the Seminole War. The Seminoles on the warpath massacre the Marsh family and take the young son captive. Hours later grandmother and Liza are rescued by James Ward, a passing stranger. Twenty-three years later Liza promises to marry the man who rescued and raised her. James Ward brings to his home a wounded Indian trader. A week later Ward is called away and leaves the stranger to protect the women. A week passes. Liza forgets gratitude and loyalty in her strange fascination for the stranger. Learning of Liza's affection for the stranger, Ward decides to efface himself that she may be happy with the man he thinks she loves, but fate takes a hand. Liza learns that the stranger is her own brother. On Ward's departure he leaves a note that explains the situation. The womanhood in Liza wins and she goes in search of Ward and is eventually rewarded. Mr. Baldwin will sing "When You Love a Little Girl." Doors open at 2 P. M.

The Bijou.

The Bijou promises big moving picture surprises for this week, and yesterday, on the very start, it commenced to make good its promises. One of the most unique, as well as delightful moving picture creations presented in this city in a long time was offered. It was a big moving picture drama, "The White Rose of the Wilds." It proved a sensational novelty and was greatly admired. The other films were also novel in character and were greatly enjoyed. A jammed Bijou was the order of both the afternoon and night, and it can be stated that Saturday and yesterday were two record breaking days at the Bijou. They have been recorded on the books of the popular theatre as the two biggest days in its history. Today the Bijou will make another superb offering. In fact, it will be both fine and immense, and, as yesterday, there will be a number of film surprises, and, of course, some delightful musical numbers. Again might be accented the fact that the Bijou is as cool as the proverbial cucumber, with plenty of ventilation.

Automobile Party Ran to Newbern in Eight Hours.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., May 29.—For the purpose of gathering data relative to the conditions of the roads with a view of calling this forcibly to the attention of the authorities of the several counties, in hope that new and greater interest may be aroused in improved highways, a path-finding party left Wilmington yesterday morning at 5:54 A. M., for an automobile trip to Newbern. The trip was made in a brand new oldsmobile special, seven-passenger, 6 horse power car, and in the party were Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., Mr. Bloomfield, of Louisville, Ky., factory representative of the oldsmobile, Messrs. Sidney MacMillan and Bruce Cameron, and Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, civil engineer, who secured data relative to the condition of the roads traversed. The party will map roads traversed. The route they took was via Castle Haynes, Burgaw, Wallace, Teachey's, Kenansville, Kinston, Dover and on through Dover Swamp, covering a distance of about 155 miles.

Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, the civil engineer, stated that they arrived in Kinston yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He said they did not take the Fort Barnwell route for the reason they could not obtain information in Kinston relative to this route, so they came through Dover, Cove City, etc., to this city. He further stated that they found the roads in fairly good condition but the bridges were pretty rough.

The party made the trip in eight hours actual running time from Wilmington to Newbern. They left Wilmington at 5:54 yesterday morning, stopped one hour in Wallace, arrived in Kinston at 2 o'clock, and remained there two hours, having left there at 4 o'clock and arrived in Newbern at 6:20. This is considered splendid time in which to make this trip, when you take in consideration that the distance they covered is approximately 155 miles.

S.S.S. RIDS THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. Nature intends that these membranes shall be nourished by the blood, but waste matters and impurities deposited into these delicate parts, sets up inflammation and the discharge is a natural result. There is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. Washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., do not reach the circulation, and therefore can only afford temporary relief. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. In other words S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are supplied with healthy nourishment instead of being continually irritated from the catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed membranes heal, the discharge is checked, head noises cease, the stomach is toned up, and the throat is no longer clogged with mucus. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired, free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE DAY AT ASHEVILLE

Sanitary District Organized—Ex-Gov. Glenn to Lecture.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., May 29.—According to the provisions of the charter given at the last Legislature, incorporating the town of West Asheville, as a sanitary district, the novel government of that town will begin June 1st and the sanitary board will meet at that time for the purpose of organization. The board consists of E. B. Jones, H. A. Brown and Z. T. Ledbetter with the chairman of the board of county commissioners as an ex-officio member.

While the method of government is different from any that is known, it is doubtful if the results will be or are intended to be other than those sought by many other towns, the idea seeming to be to make unnecessary a costly administrative machine. The charter has been approved by the State board and there are a number of places that are interested in the outcome of this method of government and many inquiries have been received respecting it. It is thought that the method will be very popular with places like cotton mill communities after it has been tried.

The board has the power to make ordinances not only for the maintainance of health but for the regulation of the moral condition of the town; they are allowed to hire an officer to keep down disorder; in fact, the principal desire of the citizens seems to be to have a clean and orderly town which they think can be accomplished with less friction in this way. The board also has in hand the construction of streets and the regulation of the water system.

The Home Mission committee of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina has made arrangements with ex-Governor R. B. Glenn to speak on home mission work at various places in the State during the next five weeks and he is now in Asheville for the purpose of delivering a lecture at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. His subject will be "Home Mission Work in North Carolina." Governor Glenn is the guest of Hon. Locke Craig.

There is to be a called session of the county board of education Monday for the purpose of considering the matter of erecting additional school buildings at certain places in the county. The interest in education has been growing to such an extent that in some communities the school facilities are not adequate and it is expected that the board will take some definite action. The school funds will also be apportioned for the districts.

The members of Co. K. of the local battalion, are now putting in some good practice at the target range in West Asheville in preparation of the coming shoot which is to be held in Raleigh June 5th to 7th, between the three companies that led in the shoot at Charlotte sometime ago in the competition for the Dupont trophy.

Co. B, First Infantry, of Raleigh, stood first in the contest at Charlotte; Co. L, Second Infantry, of Lumber Bridge, wes second, and Co. K, of Asheville, was third. This was only the preliminary competition for the Dupont trophy and the final competition is to be held in Raleigh. The team which wins in this final competition will be awarded the trophy. The men have not yet been named who will participate in the contest. They are working hard, however, and are making good scores.

YACHT VIRGINIA AGROUND.

Three Steamers Standing By to Render Aid—Good Chance.

Cape San Antonio, Cuba, May 29, via wireless to New Orleans.—E. C. Benedict's yacht, Virginia, which went aground early yesterday about seven miles northeast of Jutias Coy Light, was not floated at high tide today as expected, acording to a message received here tonight.

The Virginia is lying on a light coral bottom in uneven water, eight to sixteen feet deep with one and one-half foot rise at flood tide. She went aground at about high tide and it is expected that aid will be necessary in getting her afloat. Three steamers are standing by to render any assistance necessary and an attempt will be made to get her into deep water tomorrow morning when the tide is highest. She is not leaking. The sea is smooth with fine weather.

How to Beautify Plainest Complexion

(Toilettes.)

"The growing popularity of face lotions is in keeping with our natural progress," says a well-known beauty writer, "and before long they will have supplanted powders and cosmetics.

"A very fine lotion can be prepared at little cost by dissolving a small original package of mayatone in eight ounces of witchh-hazel. This, applied to the skin daily, frees it of pimples, blackheads or other blemishes, and will give to the 'muddy' or lifeless complexion a rich embellishment and natural health-tint impossible with powder or rouge.

"This mayatone lotion is greaseless and prevents the growth of hairs. Many women use it to prevent tan and it is employed to protect the skin from harsh winds and changing weather."

COTTON SHOWED IRREGULARITY

Market Closed Steady Eight Points Higher to Three Points Lower—Renewal of Bull Support—Crop Accounts Bearish.

New York, May 29.—The cotton market showed irregularity during today's trading, with business largely in the way for evening up the holiday tomorrow and the government crop next Friday. The close was steady, 8 points higher to 3 points lower. The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 6 points on better cables than due, and over Sunday buying orders, which had probably been inspired by the renewal of bull support and firmer tone of the local market on last Saturday.

There were reports of rains in the droughty sections of the Western belt over Sunday, however, private crop accounts were bearish and shortly after the opening prices sold off to a net loss of about one to four points, under scattering liquidation and low pressure. Around 15.57 for July, the same bull brokers whose support had checked the decline of Saturday came into the ring as buyers. This checked the selling movement and during the afternoon the near months ruled firm, with May and July both selling up a net advance of nine points. Prospects for further rain in the Western belt inspired some selling of new crop positions which imparted a relatively easy tone to the later months, and August also seemed rather weak under liquidation, and in some instances selling against purchases of July or October.

At the close, August was 3 points lower and later deliveries unchanged to 2 points higher, with May and July showing gains of 6 to 8 points.

The completed report of the Ginners' Association was said to make the condition 85 ½ per cent., and the acreage 35,108,000 acres. Wall Street houses were sellers of August and later months were said to be orders from Chicago, based on the crop report of large Chicago houses making the condition 83.8 per cent., and the acreage 35,548,000. Liverpool attributed to the relative steadiness of the near months there to Manchester "calling" cotton.

Receipts at the ports today, 3,459 bales, against 8,071 last week and 6,489 last year. For the week, 35,000 bales, against 41,159 last week, and 41,743 last year.

Today's receipts at New Orleans, 894 bales, against 2,176 last year, and at Houston, 174, against 3,122 last year.

Spot closed quiet, ten points higher; middling uplands, 15.80 middling gulf, 16.05; sales, 2,200 bales.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 29. — Violent uplifts of the wheat price today was caused by small shorts, trying to escape a possible squeeze at the end of the month. STOCKS ARE HELD IN CHECK

Cause by Uncertainty of Outcome of Steel and Iron Trade and Court Decisions—Some Features of the Day.

New York, May 29.—Uncertainty as to the outcome of present conditions in the steel and iron trade and as to the decision by the Supreme Court in the American Tobacco case held the stock market in check today. The restraining influence of these factors was not removed during the session and at the time the market closed no definite news had been received whether further cuts in steel prices were to be made, and whether the tobacco decision would be announced. Traders hesitated to take a positive stand under these conditions, particularly in view of the fact that a holiday intervenes between the next session.

The stock market moved slowly and sluggishly, and the amount of business fell off to small proportions.

News of the day seemed to confirm the belief that steel prices had not stimulated business. Conditions have assumed such significance that in the opinion of the financial community upon them to a large extent depends the action of the stock market at present.

Moderate pressure was directed against United States Steel at the opening of the market by traders who sought to make capital from present prospects. The stock gave way nearly a point, but the attack did not lead to any appreciable amount of liquidation, nor did it cause material heaviness in the general market. Although traders were unusually conservative, no weakness was apparent and the stocks that lost on the earlier transactions gradually recovered. Among the active issues, Union Pacific and the Erie were especially strong. Changes elsewhere were for the most part without significance, the chief gains of the day being made by specialties. Canadian Pacific advanced 3¼ to 238¾, a high record. The electric group of stocks and Pittsburg Coal preferred displayed marked strength. American Tobacco common advanced more than 25 points on the curb.

The bond market was irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,000,0000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 283,700 shares.

ing, the casts in this court to be borne by the defendants below, with directions to the court below to enter a decree in conformity with this opinion and to take such further steps as may be necessary to fully carry out the directions which we have given. And it is so ordered."

Harlan's Vigorous Dissent.

Asociate Justice Harlan delivered a vigorous dissent today to part of the dicision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the tobacco case although he agreed that the American Tobacco Company and its accessory and subsidiary corporations, were members of an unlawful combination in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

His dissent as expressed from the bench centered around two points. First, he took issue with the court for sending the case back to the lower court.

"I have found nothing in the record," he said, "which makes me at all anxious to perpetuate any new combinations among these companies which the court concedes had at all times exhibited a conscious wrong doing."

In the second place, he reiterated the objections he expressed in the Standard Oil decision of two weeks ago to the adoption of the "rule of reason" as a standard for ascertaining what restraints of trade violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

"My objections," said Justice Harlan, "have particular reference to those parts of the court's opinion which re-affirm what it said recently in the Standard Oil case about the former decisions of this court touching the anti-trust act. We are reminded again as we were in the Standard Oil case of the necessity to apply the 'rule of reason' in the construction of act of Congress, which is, I think, expressed in language so clear and simple that there is no room whatever for construction. Congress, with full and exclusive power over the whole subject, has signified its purpose to forbid every restraint of inter-State trade, in whatever form, or to whatever extent, but the court has assumed to insert in the act, by construction merely words which makes Congress say that it means only to prohibit 'undue' restraint of trade.

"If I do not misapprehend the opinion just delivered the court says that what was said in the opinion in the Standard Oil case was in accordance with our previous decisions in the trans-Missouri and joint traffic cases, if we resort to reason. This statement surprises me quite as much as would a statement that black was white or white was black. It is scarcely just for the court at this late day to say or intimate that Justice Peckham and his colleagues, who agreed with him, interpreted the act of Congress without regard to 'the 'rule of reason,' or to assume that the act was, for the first time, in the Standard Oil case, interpreted in the 'light of reason.'

"Now the court, in accordance with what it denominates the 'rule of reason,' in effect, inserts in the act the word 'undue' and makes Congress say what it did not say, what it plainly did not intend to say, and what since the passage of the act it has explicitly refused to say.

It has steadily refused to amend the act so as to allow a restraint of inter-State commerce was 'reasonable' or 'due.' In short, the court now, by judicial legislation in effect amends an act of Congress relating to a subject over which that department of the government has exclusive cognizance. Without intending, in the slightest degree, to under-rate the ability of my brethren, I beg to say that in my judgment Justice Peckham and his associates in the former cases were guided by the 'rule of reason,' and knew as well as others what the rules of reason required when the court sought to ascertain the will of Congress."

Get News at Durham.

Durham, N. C., May 29.—The decision of the United States Supreme Court against the American Tobacco Company was received with intense interest here this afternoon. Though perhaps the two largest factories of the whole chain are located in Durham, none of the higher officials are in the city today.

Mr. Benjamin N. Duke, whose home is in this city, is away at present. None of the superintendent of the factories will talk much. Mr. C. W. Toms, superintendent of both plants here, says that the dissolution will hurt the company considerably, but beyond that no one will talk.

No Statement Given Out.

New York, May 29.—At the offices of the American Tobacco Company it was given out that no statement would be forthcoming until the text of the decision had been read. W. W. Fuller, chief counsel, said that there would be a conference among officials and other counsel, and after the decision had been digested, probably on Wednesday, there might be an official statement.

History of Tobacco Case.

The American Tobacco corporations were made the target of the second big "trust" prosecution of recent years. The first was the Standard Oil. Because the testimony taken in the tobacco case was not so extensive as that in the Standard Oil, the two cases were before the Supreme Court for consideration at the same time.

The attempt of the government to dissolve the Tobacco corporation as violating the Sherman anti-trust law took shape in 1907. In that year, a petition was filed in the United States Circuit Court at New York. The government asked that the American Tobacco Company, its officers, directors and affiliated corporations, be prevented and enjcined from restraining and monopolizing commerce in tobacco.

The restraints and monopolies alleged by the government, were said to have been obtained in intricate system of corporate organization. It began in 1890 when the first American Tobacco Company was organized. The new company took over the business of five independent cigarette concerns.

In 1898, the Continental Tobacco Company was incorporated to take over the plug-tobacco business of The American Tobacco Company and that of five independent plug manufacturers.

In 1900, the American Snuff Company was incorporated to take over the snuff business of the American Tobacco Company, of the Continental Tobacco Company, and of two other independent manufacturers.

In 1901, the American Cigar Company was incorporated to take over the business of the American Tobacco Company and other manufacturers and sellers of cigars, cheroots and stogies.

In the same year, the Consolidated Tobacco Company was incorporated to take over in exchange for its bonds substantially all of the stock of the American Tobacco Company and the Continental Tobacco Company.

In 1903, the American Stogie Company was incorporated to take over the Stogie business of the American Cigar Company, the American Tobacco Company, and the Continental Tobacco Company.

In 1904, the American Tobacco Company, the Continental and the Consolidated Tobacco Company were merger itno the present American Tobacco Company.

The government claimed that all these organizations were created with the definite purpose to destroy competition and that they accomplished that purpose. Each step was attacked as a part of an unlawful plan, whose development and progress was advanced, it was charged by duress, oppression and unfair methods intended to drive out and keep out competition and secure monopolies.(

The defendants claimed that nothing was to be found in the organization of these corporations, but the orderly, natural and legitimate development of great business. They said the acquisitions had been proper and that no intent to restraint trade or monopolize trade had prompted the creation of corporations.

In addition, it was charged that the American Tobacco Company acquired control of the United Cigar Stores Company acquired retail stores in large cities, and thereby was seeking dominion in the retail business, an avenue absolutely necessary to effective competition.

The tobacco organization was charged with having a monopoly of the licorice paste, required in the manufacture of tobacco, the MacAndrews & Forbes Company, organized by the Continental, having no competitor, it was said.

It was also said that the defendants had a monopoly in the tin foil business, the Conley Foil Company, of which the American Tobacco Company held a majority of the stock; producing 75 per cent. of the tin foil manufactured in this country. Both the licorice and tin foil monopolies were said to have been obtained in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Another phase of the litigation concerned the foreign trade. The petition charged that the American Tobacco Company had entered into contracts with the Imeprial Tobacco Company, the so-called "British Trust," whereby the latter should limit its activities to Great Britain except as to the purchase of a certain amount of leaf in America and the former should limit its business of the United States. It was alleged that the two "trust" organized the British-American Tobacco Company to take over the export business of both and divide the world between them. These contracts were made in Great Britain.

The Circuit Court found that there existed a restraint of commerce, but said nothing about the charges of monopolizing. In its decree, the court dismissed the petition as to the Imperial Company and the British-American Company and from this feature of decree the government appealed to the Supreme Court. It dismissed the petition as to the United Cigar Stores Company, and from this, too, the government appealed.

The Circuit Court decreed that the American Tobacco Company, the American Snuff Company and MacAndrews & Forbes Company were unlawful combinations and restrained them from engaging in inter-State or foreign commerce From this, the defendants appealed to the Supreme Court. So did the government. The government objected because the Conley Foil Company and the individual defendants, headed by James B. Duke, were not made parties to the conspiracy to restrain and because all were not held to be attempting to monopolize.

The Circuit Court decreed that the American Tobacco Company, the American Snuff Company, the American Cigar Company, P. Lorillard Company, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Company and the Conley Foil Company held shares in specified corporations and enjoined them from acquiring the plants or business or voting the shares of and from exercising control over the "subsidiary" companies, and enjoining the "subsidiary" companies from permitting control. Both the defendants and the government appealed. The latter objected principally because the Imperial Tobacco Company, the British American Tobacco Company and the United Cigars Stores Company were not included among the "subsidiary" companies, and because the holding companies were not prohibited from collecting dividends from the "subsidiary" companies.

The appeals were argued before the Supreme Court, first in January, 1910, and the second time in January, 1911. Prominent attorneys appeared. For the government Attorney General Wickersham and his special asistant, J. C. McReynolds, addressed the court. For the American Tobacco Companies there appeared John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia; DeLancey Nicoll and Junius Parker, of New York; while William B. Hornblower, of New York, argued for the imperial Tobacco Company, and Sol M. Stroock, of New York, for the United Cigar Stores Company.

Atlanta, Ga., May 29.—Because Dr. John Clifford, of London, president of the World's Baptist Alliance, is a higher critic of the Bible and once referred to the miracles of the Old Testament as a collection of stories not fit to be taugat to children, a motion that was made today at the weekly meeting of the Baptist ministers to invite him to Atlanta, met with such opposition that it was withdrawn.

HAPPENINGS IN COLUMBUS.

Effects of the Storm—Farm Conditions — Other Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 29.—Besides the destruction of the store of Mr. H. F. Schulken b ythe storm Friday night,, a new five-room house belonging to a colored man and nearing completion was also utterly destroyed in Vineland. Both these buildings are complete wrecks, the lumber being badly split up, and must be practically rebuilt.

Last Sunday Mr. Gantt, editor of the News-Reporter, and Judge Maxwell, of The Star, took a drive through Welches Creek township, dining with Hon. James H. Shipman. They both carefully inspected crops, to see the effects of the rain and the damage done by the long dry spell. Something over one-third the cotton planted has come up, has been worked out and is looking fine. Except on late patches, there is a fine stand of corn and it is looking well. Oats are sorry, except a few fields, where they were planted early on rich land. About two-thirds of a crop of tobacco has been planted, but after the shower of Friday some farmers set out more plants and are trying to keep them alive by water. The shower was light, not penetrating the ground over two or three inches, but it did much good. An examination was made of cotton, and the seed were found to be sound and ready to germinate. Mr. Shipman is of the opinion that there is enough moisture in the ground to bring up cotton and they will have a good stand. Mr. Shipman says he has not worried any about the dry spell, as there is plenty of time to make a crop yet. The wind Sunday dried the ground and somewhat destroyed the good effects of the shower.

There are a few scattering peaches left on the trees. Mr. Shipman had several trees with ripe peaches and they were the finest early peaches we ever saw. He has a model farm, and grows an abundance of everything to live bounteously on, and also for sale. His smoke-house is filled with home-raised bacon, he never buys corn or forage, has hundreds of poultry of all kinds, and in fact, you find there an up-to-date Southern farm home.

A gentleman named Stanley, from Marlboro county, S. C., and his three sons, moved into this county some three years ago and bought farms in Welches Creek township, and on the Cape Fear river in Bladen. They have fine farms and are highly prosperous. One place, for which they paid $5,000, they refused $10,000 for. They say there is no need of farmers moving out West to find homes with our great bodies of forest lands.

KILLED FOUR AND SELF.

Desperate Deed of Farm Hand—Defied Arrest.

Pawnee City, Neb., May 29.—James Fielder, a farm hand employed by J. M. McVittie, angered because McVittie objected to Fielder's attentions to his daughter, today killed McVittie and his wife and two children, wounded a third child, fatally shot Sheriff Claude, who attempted to arrest him, and then killed himself.

After killing four members of the McVittie family, Fielder, at the point of a revolver, forced Miss McVittie to accompany him in a buggy. He fired two shots at her when she drove away when he stepped from the vehicle for a moment. She was not wounded.

For some time Fielder has paid unwelcome attention to McVittie's daughter. According to the daughter, the only member of the family left alive, her father this morning told Fielder to leave the place. Fielder immediately got a revolver and began shooting.

After Miss McVittie escaped to a neighbor's home and sounded the alarm, Fielder was found in an empty school house. He barricaded himself. Sheriff Fuller soon arrived with a deputy and attempted to capture Fielder. The maddened man fired three bullets into the sheriff's body. Seeing the officer fall, Fielder fired a bullet into his heart and was found dead when farmers arrived to aid the sheriff.

WANT TEDDY TO TESTIFY.

Desired as Witness At "Steel Turst" Probe In Congress.

Washington, May 29.—Theodore Roosevelt is desired as a witness before the special "steel trust" investigating committee of the House. A request has been sent to Mr. Roosevelt to appear and tell what he knows abtu the taking over of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the United States Steel Corporation.

John W. Gates, who was before the committee Saturday contradicted practically all the statements in Mr. Roosevelt's letter to Attorney General Banaparte, in which it was set forth that E. H. Gary and H. C. Frick have volunteered to avert a financial disaster by taking over the coal and iron company.

Mr. Roosevelt will be asked t harmonize the apparent discrepencies.

New York, May 29. — Theodore Rosevelt was asked this afternoon at his home in Oyster Bay, whether he would appear as a witness before the special House committee investigating the "steel trust." He declined to discuss the matter, sending word that he had nothing to say.

New York, May 29.—The Vanderbilt cup race and the grand prize, the two feature road races for automobiles will be held this year over the Savannah Automobile Club course in Georgia, according to announcement made here late tonight.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only, 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.
